KIRRIEMUIR

The condolences of every body go out to E. Prescott and family in their bereavement, the death of their respected mother, Mrs. Mitchell.

Grandpa Robins is building a new home several thousand feet above sea level.

A. Weeco is busy with the well drillers (don't crowd) it's for water.

Through the efficiency of Dr. Robinson, Grace Campbell suffered no further inconvenience at Kerrobert. The X-Ray proved the ankle bone to be normally adjusted under the cast.

The Viewland Community Club met last Saturday night.

Both J. Ward and Rev. A. V. Houghton are satisfied. At last the Pastor is satisfied in having a horse of his own; this is the sequel of the Lizzie.

Mr. White, of Gregerson, is deserving of many thanks for the loan of a horse to the Pastor all summer.

We are all sorry to hear of the misfortune suffered by Mrs. A. Hennessy. Her Sunday School Class at Viewland have missed her very much.

There was a good attendance at the Viewland Sabbath School on Sunday morning.

We are non-sectarian in our stand, and we invite all sects to amalgamate with us.

Service will be held at the home of J. and Mrs. Mitchell, Sunday Nov. 20th, at 3 p.m.

Don't forget the Annual Bazaar is on Friday, Nov. 18th. Everybody be on hand early for the bargains.

CLAIMS U.F.A. ORGANIZATION BEING USED TO SPREAD BOLSHEVIST PROPAGANDA

W. H. Anderson, Member U.F.A. Dewberry, Asserts Farmer Political Movement Tolerating this Form of Insanity in Attempt to Gain Power at Ottawa

IS UNWORTHY SUPPORT OF RIGHT THINKING PEOPLE WILL SUPPORT J. W. G. MORRISON AND N. L. AND C. PARTY

EDITOR STANDARD:

With particular reference to the Ivens meetings, one of which seems to have been held rather quietly on the evening of the 25th of October in the Hazeldean Schoolhouse, I would thank you for space in which to call attention to the more or less insidious attempt of a portion of the U. F. A. membership to make use of the organization as a medium for spreading BOLSHEVIST propaganda.

To the writer, it would appear that that the belauded idea of those smitten with this sort of thing, is that the cure for anarchy is MORE anarchy. In spite of the fact that it has always been plain to the discerning that the Russian Bolshevik regime, considering the comparatively enlightened times in which it is occurring, is really the crime of the ages.

As a U. F. A. member of long standing I think that patience with this almost criminal folly has long since ceased to be a virtue, particularly that it is not repudiated by the FARMER leadership. For the past year or two it has gradually been becoming apparent to many that the Farmer Political Movement is tolerating, if not encouraging, this form of insanity with a view to gaining strength to capture the Dominion government. Regardless of any temporary success it may achieve, I am convinced that a movement founded on such false basis cannot endure and that its growth, made up largely as it is by the inciting of class antagonism and wholesale unwarranted discontent is small credit to Canada.

I wish therefore, to say that I, for one consider that the attempt of this party to get Dominion control is unworthy of the support of right thinking people. Mr. Spencer, the U. F. A. "Group" Candidate for Battle River is probably as good a nominee as could have secured the U. F. A.—or is it "Progressive" nomination, but he stands for the system and by that he must be judged. Mr. Morrison on the other hand is a man of ability and probity representing a party which does not preach the CLASS WAR, neither does it countenance it; but while admitting, that in all sections of the people there is room for improvement it appeals to all economic classes to unite their best efforts at all times for the common weal.

For the foregoing good and sufficient reasons I am, Mr. Editor, supporting J. W. G. Morrison and the National Liberal and Conservative Party now enjoying the able and patriotic leadership of the Hon. Arthur Meighen—a man of whom we may all feel justly proud.

W. H. Anderson

Local Happenings

The regular meeting of the O. N. O. Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Jim Hayes on Sat. Nov. 18th, at 8 p.m.

Remember the Bazaar on Nov. 22nd—Tuesday of next week. The goods will be on display from 4 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Big Hall.

There will be splendid values and something for everybody. Come and enjoy yourself. A short program commencing at 8 o'clock—and then the sale opens.

Monitor and district turned out well to welcome our Lutheran friends, Rev. Brua and Mr. Seotvole, on Sunday last. The seating capacity of the Co-operative Church was over-taxed but the floor made a splendid "bench." The message was from Isaiah 53—a call for discipleship and a response of service, because of God's forgiveness and love. The singing was whole-hearted and congregational and the financial response to the appeal in the interests of the Lutheran Young People's League was very gratifying.

The evangelists left on Monday morning for the Eye Hill district where they have a series of meetings planned for this week.

The W. A. Sale of Work and Supper on Friday last was a great success. Sincere thanks are given to Mr. Moth for the use of the Hall, to all those who gave articles for the Sale, to those who supplied the chicken etc., for the Supper, also those who helped in the strenuous work of preparation and serving, and to the general public who so wholeheartedly supported the effort made.

The sum of $210.00 was realized.

Geo. Sloan returned to town the first of the week, after a few weeks visit in Saskatchewan.

Dr. Agnew, Dentist, will be in town for two days, Nov. 28 and 29.

Local Happenings

Leo Sloan left last week for Venosta, Que., where he will reside until Spring.

After spending the summer with his son Leo, S. S. Beebe returned to Tenafly, N. J., last week.

O. Johnson will spend the winter with relatives in Dakota leaving for the States last week.

There will be a special meeting, in the Schoolhouse on Sat. afternoon Dec. 3rd at 3 o'clock, to which all those interested in the School Fair are invited.

The members of the School Board are specially requested to be present.

Armistice Day was fittingly celebrated in town on Friday. In the afternoon the school children gave an excellent program of songs, recitations, etc., which was greatly enjoyed by the visitors present. The German trench mortar was mounted on a stand in front of the Hall and unveiled. The Sale of Poppies was a great success, a total of $132.20 being realized, and $76.80 of the proceeds will go to the French Widows and Orphans Relief Fund, the balance going to the local G. W. V. A. Relief Fund.

There was a large turnout at the Dance and everybody enjoyed the hospitality of the local Veterans. A very fine collection of war trophies, medals, souvenirs, etc., was on display in the windows of Barker's Tea Room. The stores and business places in town all displayed poppy wreaths, crosses, etc.

The G. W. V. A. wishes to thank the girls who helped to sell the Poppies.

The Stonehaw U. F. A. meets at Minor School on Saturday, Nov. 19th, at 8 p.m. Also a special meeting at Gregerson School on Friday Nov. 25th at 1 p.m. Forming of a Farm Credit Association will be discussed.

There will be a meeting of the Skating Rink Club in the Hotel, Saturday night, at 8. Everybody invited to attend.

The Government grant to the School Fair has been received from Edmonton.

NOTICE

Anyone in the Basin Lake, Creek Valley or Horse Shoe Dis wishing to join the Co-operative Farm Credit Society please notify A. C. Gudim, Sec.

There will be a U. F. A. meeting in Basin Lake School on Saturday night, Nov. 19th, at 7 p.m. All those interested in the Farm Credit Society are asked to be present.

Discovered True Remedy For Systematic Catarrh

A had case of Catarrh is not an easy thing to treat, and a remedy that makes good, deserves great credit. Catarrh is certainly fixed up. Chas. H. Webb, who writes from Woodstock: "For a number of years I was troubled with systematic Catarrh. Nothing helped me very much. I used Catarrhicine Inhaler and got relief. To build up my system, I used Ferrozone. This combination can be beaten. They made me well." Your case may also be bad, but Catarrhicine will do for you what it did for Mr. Webb. Two months treatment $1.00, small size 50c. All dealers or the Catarrhicine Co., Montreal.

"Independent of what?" she asked. "Why, independent of—of everything. Nothing more to worry about and plenty laid up for old age. Ain't that worth a sacrifice?"

"John," she said, turning and raising her eyes to his face. "Answer me a straight question. What was the happiest time in your life? Wasn't it when we lived in the one-roomed and shanty, with scarcely a cent to bless ourselves? We worked hard then, too, but we had time for long walks together across the prairie, time to sit in the dusk by the water and plan our lives together. We have done well; we have land, horses, machinery, money. But have we the happiness we knew when we had none of these? On the contrary, are you not worried morning, noon and night over your work and your property? Don't you complain about the kind of help the farmers have to hire nowadays, and the wages they have to pay? And if you get more land won't all your troubles be increased in proportion? John, sit down and think this thing over. We can't get more property; what we need is a chance to enjoy the property we already have. The one thing we haven't got, the one thing it seems we can't get, is time. Time to think, time to read, time for walks on the prairie, time for sunsets and skies and—kindness, and all the things that make life real. We have the chance to choose now between life and land; in this place, think it all over again and let us seek that which is really worth while?"

"Now I know where Beulah got her nonsense," he retorted. "All this talk about real life is very fine, but you don't get much life, real or any other kind, unless you have the cash to pay down for it. You can't buy beefsteaks with long walks over the

Appetite Good, Gained 20 lbs. Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man was restored to health, strength and happiness.

He tells his own story in this letter.

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts, Lovena, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, became very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39.

"Then I read about people being restored by Dr. Chase's Medicines and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement each day and the constipation was gone. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

prairie, nor clothe yourself and family with sunsets. For my part I want some real success. We've done pretty well here, as you say, but it's only a beginning to what we can do, if we set about it, and don't wait until the cheap land is all gone. I don't see why you should go back on me at this time of life, Mary. We've stood together for a long while, and I kinda figured I could count on you."

"So you can, John; so you can to the very last, for anything that is for your own good, but when you set your heart on something that means more trouble and hardship and won't add one lot to your happiness, I think it is my duty to persuade you if I can. We've been drifting apart lately; why not let us both go back to the beginning and start over again, and by kindness, and fairness, and liberality, and—sympathy, try to recover something of what we have lost?"

"I have always thought I had been liberal enough," he said. "Didn't I build you a good house and buy furniture for it, and do I stint you in what you spend, either on the table or your self? More than that, didn't I put the title to the homestead in your name? And ain't I ready to do the same with the new homestead, if that's the sticker?"

"I never thought of such a thing," she protested. "And you shouldn't claim too much credit for putting the homestead quarter in my name. You know when you bought the first rail road land you were none too sure how things would come out, and you thought it might be a wise precaution to have the old farm stand in your wife's name."

"That's all the thanks I get," he said bitterly. "Well, I'll take the new one in my own name, but I'll take it just the same. If you don't want to share in it you won't have to. For the present it's your duty to stay here and run things till we get back."

"What are you going to do after you get your new farm? You can't work two farms a thousand miles apart, can you?"

"Oh, I guess that won't worry us long. The Americans are coming in now with lots of good money. I was figurin' up that this place, as a goin' concern, ought to bring about forty thousand dollars, and I'll bet I could sell it inside of a week."

"Sell it?" she exclaimed. "You don't mean that you intend to sell this farm?"

"Why not? If somebody else wants it worse'n we do, and has the money to pay for it, why shouldn't I sell it?" The tears stood in her eyes as she answered: "In all these years while we have been building up this home I never once thought of it as something to sell. It was too near for that—a part of ourselves, of our very life. It seemed more like—like one of the children, than a mere possession. And now you would sell it? Just as you might sell a load of wheat or get fat steer?"

"In this place—this home where you have grown old and grey—nothing to you? Have you no sentiment that will save it from the highest bidder?"

"Sentiment is a poor affair in business," he answered. "Property was made to sell; money was made to buy it with. The successful man is the one who has his price for everything, and knows how to get it. As for grown old and grey on this farm, why, that's a gratitude I have against it, though I don't think I'm very grey and I don't feel very old. And if I get my price, why shouldn't I sell?"

"Very well," she answered. "I've nothing more to say. Sell it if you must, but remember one thing—I won't be here to see it pass into the hands of strangers." She straightened herself up, and there was a fire in her eyes that reminded him of the day when she had elected to share with him the hardships of the wilderness, and in spite of himself some of his old pride in her returned. "I leave to-morrow for a visit, and I may be gone some time. You reminded me of your liberality a few minutes ago; prove it now by writing me a cheque for my expenses. Remember I will expect to travel like the wife of a prosperous farmer, a man whose holdings are worth forty thousand dollars cash."

"So that's your decision, is it? You set me at defiance; you try to wreck my plans by your own stubbornness. You break up my family piece by piece, until all I have left is Allan. Thank God, the boy, at least is sound. Well, you shall have your cheque, and I'll make it a big one that it may carry you the farther."

Even in the teeth of his bitterness the mention of Allan's name strained the mother's heart beyond her power of resistance, and she turned with outstretched arms towards her husband. For a moment he wavered, the flame of love, still smouldering in his breast, leaping up before the breath of her response. But it was for a moment only. Weakness would have meant surrender, and surrender was the one thing of which Harris was incapable. He laid out his course with a clear conscience; he was sincerely working for the greatest good to his family, and if his wife was determined to stand in her own light it was his duty to pursue the course in defiance of her. So he checked the impulse to take her in his arms, and walked stolidly to his desk in the parlour.

He returned shortly and placed a cheque in her hands. She looked at it through misty eyes, and read that it was for two hundred dollars. It represented a two-hundredth part of their joint earnings, and yet he thought he was dealing liberally with her; he half expected, in fact, that his magnanimity would break her down where his firmness had failed.

If Losing Looks or Strength Read This Carefully

Once you were robust, bright and happy. To-day you are dull, worried, falling in vitality and appearance. Just when you should be at your best you're played out and need a cleansing medicine. Get the right remedy and your blood will redde, your vivacious spirits will soon return, and you'll be yourself again. You should use Dr. Hamilton's Pills—a truly wonderful medicine. It drives away headaches, and weariness, lifts the load from your liver, tones up the stomach, puts you on your feet in no time. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills and watch the result. In a week you'll feel like new. All dealers, 25c, or The Catarrhicine Co., Montreal.

But she only whispered a faint "Thank you," and slowly folded the paper in her fingers. He waited for a minute, suspecting that she was overcome, but as she said nothing more he at length turned and left the house, saying gruffly as he went out: "When that's done I'll send you more if you write for it."

It was now ten at night, and almost dark, but Harris did not mind. He slowly turned down the road toward Riles'. Riles' reputation in the community was that of a hard-working, money-grubbing farmer, with a big bony body, and a little shrivelled soul. If indeed the latter had not entirely dried up into ashes. A few years ago Harris had held his neighbor in rather low regard, but of late he had been more and more impressed with Riles' ability to make his farm pay, which was as great as or greater than his own, and what he had once thought to be hardness and lack of humanity he now recognized as simply the capacity to take a common-sense, business view of conditions.

At the gate he met Allan, returning from spending a social hour with the Grant boys. "Where going, Dad?" the younger man demanded. "Oh, I thought I'd take a walk over 'Riles'. There's a lot o' things 't talk about."

"What's the matter, Dad?" The strained expression of his father's voice had not escaped him. "Nothin' . . . I might as well tell you now; you'll know it in a little while anyway. Your mother is goin' away—on a visit."

"Like Beulah's visit, I suppose. So come to this, I've seen it for some time. Dad, and you must've seen it too. But you're not really goin' to let her go? Come back to the house with me—surely you two can get together on this thing, if you try."

"I have tried," said Harris, "and it's no use. She's got those notions like Beulah—quittin' work, and twillights and sunsets and all that kind o' thing. There's no use talkin' with her; reason don't count for anything. I got her a good pocketful o' money, and told her to write for more when she needed it. She'll get over her notions pretty soon when she gets among strangers. Go in and have a talk with her, boy; there's no use you bein' at odds with her, too. As for me, I can't do anything more."

"I suppose you know best," he answered, "but it seems—hang it, it's against all reason that you two—that this should happen."

"Of course it is. That's what I said a minute ago. But reason don't count just now. But you have your talk with her, and give her any help you can if she wants 't get away at once."

Allan found his mother in her room, packing a trunk and gently weeping into it. He laid his hand upon her, and presently he found her work-worn frame resting in his strong arms.

"You're not going to leave us, mother, are you?" he said. "You wouldn't do that?"

"Faddy" Appetites

When the digestive organs are out of order you need the help of Mather Seigel's Syrup. The herbal medicinal extracts of which the Syrup is made restore tone and strength to jaded stomachs, make food yield nourishment and save from the many ills which indigestion brings. Mather Seigel's Syrup is now sold in 50c. and $1.00 bottles at drug stores.

Not If it could be helped, Allan. But there is no help. Your father has set his heart on more land, and more work, and giving up this home, and I might as well go first as last. More and more he is giving his love to work instead of to his family. I bear him no ill-will—nothing, nothing but love, if he could only come out of this trance of his and see things in their true light. But as time goes on he gets only deeper in. Perhaps when I am away for a while he'll come to himself. That's our only hope.

Note and Comment

There was a large attendance at the political meeting held by the Farmers' Progressive Party in the Big Hall. T. Partridge was Chairman and in his remarks gave an outline of aims of the Farmers' Party.

G. N. Johnson, M. L. A. for this Constituency, spoke at some length dealing mainly with the provincial situation. He stated that ninety-five per cent. of the farmers, in Alberta were up against it, and were struggling under a burden of debt that they cannot overcome under present conditions with the price of cattle, wheat and all farm produce lower than ever before, making the cost of production higher than the returns from same. There was no one remedy for the farmer, but the speaker outlined five that would materially assist in overcoming these conditions.

1. Reduction of the tariff.
2. Pre war freight rates.
3. Wheat Board.
4. Natural Resources of the province under Provincial control, with indirect taxation removed.
5. Adequate credit and reasonable interest. Co-operative purchasing for the farmer. Efficient farming, rigid economy.

H. E. Spencer, Progressive Candidate in the Federal election next month, addressed the meeting, and at the outset gave the two main planks of the party, viz Representation, and Direct Taxation. He wanted government through, not by, representation. Direct taxation on incomes, and no man to pay any tax until he had enough to keep himself and his family.

Both speakers answered a great number of questions on various subjects to the complete satisfaction of those present.

BENJAMIN H. KAUFFMAN,
Reading, Pa.

"There's no doubt in my mind that Tanlac saved my wife's life," was the positive statement of Benjamin H. Kauffman, 505 Bingham St., Reading, Pa., popular clothing salesman for the well-known firm of Croll & Keck:

"I was almost desperate from worrying over her condition, as she had suffered so long without getting relief and I can hardly believe my own eyes now when I see the change in her. Why, she doesn't show her age by twenty years and declares she never feels better in her life. Her health was falling steadily for a year as a result of catarrh of the stomach, and I have never seen anybody suffer as much from indigestion and nervousness as she did."

"After a five weeks' course of Tanlac she was like another person, and I'm firmly convinced that years have been added to her life. It makes me shudder now when I think what the result might have been if she hadn't taken Tanlac in time."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists and general merchants everywhere.

Russians Executed for Theft

Nineteen men have been shot and 46 men and women sentenced to prison terms after conviction before a Moscow court martial for thefts of diamonds, platinum and old silver and jewelry from the government stores. These stores were taken over by the Soviet from shops and individuals at the beginning of the Bolshevik regime. Chief Inspector of the state control commissariat, M. Avenitkyan, who has been executed, was convicted of stealing 50 million rubles worth of gems and precious metals.

YOUNG WOMEN AVOID PAIN

This One Tells How She Was Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Regina, Sask.—"For two years I suffered from periodic pains and nausea so I was unable to get around. My mother had me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am much better and able to go about all the time, which I could not do before. I recommend Vegetable Compound to my friends if I know they suffer the same way, and you may publish my letter if it will help any one, as I hope it will."—Miss Z. G. BLACKWELL, 2073 Osler Place, Regina, Sask.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Blackwell did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, headache, dragging down pains, inflammation, ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

Seal Herd Increasing

Valuable Fur-Bearing Animals More Plentiful on the Pacific Coast

After having been reduced in numbers from 2,500,000 to less than 125,000 through unrestricted slaughter in the past, the great seal herd of the Northern Pacific has under the adequate protection afforded them by the government, again increased, until today it is estimated that there are at least 600,000 of the valuable mammals between the coast of Washington and the icy shores off Alaska.

The Indians, who alone have been permitted to hunt the seals under restrictions which compelled them not to shoot them but only to spear them, expect to capture about 2,000 seals this year. The money value of the skins taken since the closed season for sealing schooners was declared in 1917 is said to be about $500,000.

Queer City in Ireland

The most queer city in the three kingdoms is Clogher, situated in the south of Tyrone, Ireland, an episcopal city, consisting of a single street with houses only on the one side. There is a saying in the north—"All on one side, like Clogher." The other side of the street is occupied by the wall and overhanging trees of the Macartney's demesne, which gives the place a very picturesque appearance. Further, this street has a cathedral, and episcopal palace without a resident bishop, and a deanery without a dean!

Treatment by the M.O. brought no relief and various 'pile remedies' I tried proved equally hopeless. Shortly after my discharge from the service a friend strongly advised me to get Zam-Buk. One box of the balm brought such benefit that I determined to continue the treatment. In a few weeks Zam-Buk caused the piles to completely disappear. All other sufferers should know of this wonderful herbal healer." The ZAM-BUK for all your Skin Troubles.

Rose-Colored Crepe Brightens Navy Tricotine

By Marie Belmont

This attractive dress is an admirable one for the matron in need of a pretty model for afternoon wear. It is made of navy blue tricotine enlivened with trimmings of rose-colored crepe. The latter is used for the loose under-sleeves as well as the narrow panels that flank the front of the dress. Bands of the crepe also make effective trimming about the frock. Should the practical-minded woman consider that the rose crepe is too delicate, she might substitute a contrasting shade of blue or one of the reds that are so much to the fore this season.

Railway Board Will Defer Decision On Grain Freight Rates

Winnipeg.—No decision will be rendered in the application for permission to allow the Canadian Pacific Railway Company the right to enter the Drumheller coal field over the line of the Canadian National Railways, until a public hearing has been held at Ottawa, it was announced by the board of railway commissioners.

Declaring that the basic industry of Western Canada—agriculture—was faced with absolute prostration, that farmers were leaving the country for the cities; and that grain traffic of the railways showed absolutely unprofitable returns ranging from 351 per cent. to 457 per cent., H. J. Symington, K.C., representing the Manitoba and Saskatchewan Governments and the United Grain Growers, Limited, asked the board of railway commissioners to make drastic and material reductions in the grain freight rates in western territories.

At the conclusion the board announced decision would be withheld pending a further hearing to be held shortly in Ottawa.

Trouble In Montenegro

Natives Rebel to Secure Independence From Serbia

London.—An insurrection has broken in Montenegro for the purpose of securing Montenegrin independence from Serbia, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Rome which connects the insurrection with the Albanian situation.

A Montenegrin battalion, says the message, has seized the highly important strategic height of Mount Lovcen.

Vast forest fires, alleged to have been started by the Serbs, are raging in the vicinity of Podgoritz.

The advance of Jugo-Slav troops into Albania has been arrested by heavy counterattacks on the part of the Albanians, according to a Central News dispatch from Rome.

HALIFAX EXPLOSION WRECKED HER NERVES

The reader will, no doubt, remember when a few years ago there was a collision in the Halifax, N.S. Harbor and one of the munition ships was blown up, causing great loss of life and laying a large portion of the city in ruins, and causing a great deal of suffering and distress among the inhabitants.

Mrs. Winfield Dill, now of Windsor, N.S., was living in Halifax at that time and went through this trying experience and the shock wrecked her nerves. She writes as follows: "I was living in Halifax at the time of the explosion, and it wrecked my nerves so that I could not do my housework. I would take such nervous spells I would be under the doctor's care."

I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised, so I took two boxes, and they helped me so much I took six more, and now I am completely relieved. I can recommend them to anyone suffering from heart and nerve trouble."

To all those who suffer from nervous shock we would recommend our

Lloyd George May Yet Attend Conference

Washington.—Mr. Lloyd George, in a personal message delivered at the state department by Ambassador Geddies, expressed regret at his inability to attend the opening session of the conference and declared that nothing but the intensely delicate state of the Irish negotiations and matters relating to unemployment legislation in parliament precluded his attendance. He stated that he hoped to be present before the conference reached the deciding stage of its momentous work.

Fire Destroys Ontario Homes

Only Two Members of Family at Kearney Escape

North Bay, Ont.—Five persons dead and one child badly burned, was the total reached in the casualties of a fire which destroyed three houses at Kearney, Ont.

The dead are: Mrs. Fred Wheeler, her baby girl, aged about three months; Doris, aged about three years; Roy Wheeler, aged about six, and Sophie, 17, who died from burns. Another child, Mildred, is in a critical condition.

The only members of the family to escape were William, aged 23, and Freddie, aged nine, who jumped from a window at the rear of the house. William made a brave attempt to rescue his mother from a front room but she failed to answer to his calls. She was dead.

The tragedy occurred during the absence of Mr. Wheeler, who had left for North Bay, a distance of about 25 miles, on an early train. He was informed of the fate of his family by a telegram which was handed to him at the station here and sobbing pitifully he sought the nearest telephone. The meagre information available as yet does not account for the origin of the fire.

Increase in Manitoba Population

1921 Census Shows Province Is Growing Rapidly

Ottawa.—The result of the 1921 census shows that the population of the province of Manitoba increased from 461,199 in 1911 to 613,908, an increase of 42.92 per cent. The population of Winnipeg increased from 136,935 in 1911 to 178,364 in 1921, an increase of 42.32 per cent. The city of St. Boniface increased from 7,483 in 1911 to 12,816 in 1921, an increase of 5.33, or 71.20 per cent. A recent bulletin from the census department gave St. Boniface a population of 13,818. This, it was explained, was due to a typographical error.

The city of Brandon increased from 13,839 in 1911 to 15,359 in 1921, an increase of 10.99 per cent. Portage la Prairie increased from 5,892 in 1911 to 6,748 in 1921, an increase of 14.60 per cent.

Britain Will Pay Interest to U.S.

Arrangement Has Been Made to Pay $50,000,000 Yearly

London.—An arrangement has been made to begin paying the interest on the debt owned by Great Britain to the United States at the rate of $50,000,000 yearly. This was announced in the House of Commons by Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer.

Sir Robert made this announcement in the course of a statement on the budget prospects. He added with emphasis:

"I hope this remark about the debt we owe the United States will not be made the occasion for any discussion of the inter-related indebtedness. It does not conduce to the friendliness of the feeling between the United States and ourselves to discuss that matter at all at present."

Japan Facing Deficit

Situation Will Make the Strictest Economy Necessary

Tokio.—Japan faces a deficit of 20,000,000 yen for the present fiscal year, the cabinet was told by Baron Takahashi, minister of finance. He added that current revenues indicated the figure might be even greater. Commenting on his statement, the Yomi Huri Shimbun says:

"The situation renders strict economy in framing the new budget absolutely necessary. The finance department thus will have to resort to the broadest policy of retrenchment in examining the draft estimates presented by each government department."

Returns From Perilous Journey

Small Motor Boat Made Journey to Siberian Coast

Vancouver.—The little motor ship, Casco, captained by O. L. Lee, under charter to the Hudson's Bay Company, has returned from an adventurous journey to the North Siberian coast.

The Casco left here early in June and visited a number of ports in the Behring and Siberian Seas. At Petropavlovsk, while repairing gas tanks on a launch alongside, two of the Casco's crew were killed in an explosion. They were G. A. Cucas and J. O. Overhill, engineers, Sydney Ely, of Vancouver, sustained severe burns when he tried to rescue Cucas at the risk of his life.

Auto Runs Into Water

Four Men Have Narrow Escape Through Driver's Error

Prince Rupert, B.C.—Four men narrowly escaped drowning when a closed automobile in which they were riding plunged over a wharf here and sank in the harbor. The men were trying out a new car, and the driver threw it into "high" when he meant to apply the brakes. They had to fight their way out of the closed car while under water.

Report Anti-Bolshevik Revolt

London.—Cecil Harmsworth, under-secretary for foreign affairs, replying to a question in the House of Commons, stated the government had received a report that an anti-Bolshevik revolution had broken out in the southern part of Russia. He said no information had been received regarding a report that General Petlura, Ukrainian leader, was engineering the revolution from Rumania.

World Is Settling Down To Work, Says Lloyd George

London.—Mr. Lloyd George, speaking at the Lord Mayor's banquet, declared that there was a better prospect of Great Britain's proposals to Ireland being heeded today and Ireland accepting the invitation to enter the British commonwealth as an equal than for years, but that the conference was still in a critical stage. Beyond this he carefully refrained from divulging the results or the possibilities of the conferences which are now being held with the Irish representatives.

In his opening remarks the Prime Minister alluded to the economic troubles afflicting the world, such as followed the Napoleonic wars. He expressed the conviction that the force of the cyclone was already spent, and followed with a recital of numerous symptoms indicating that a revival was coming, particularly the fact that "in every land the slackness that seemed to overcome labor is passing away."

"The world is settling down to work," said Mr. Lloyd George, "and it is work alone that will fill the depleted tills which will enable purchases to come to the markets. The blue sky is beginning to emerge. The Washington conference, summoned by President Harding, is like a rainbow in the sky, for, without the assurance of peace, restoration of business is impossible."

"This conference comes none too soon. So far the war has not had the effect which every sane man anticipated from it, in arresting the growths of armaments. Man is the most unteachable of all animals. If you inflict punishment upon any other animal he quickly learns the lesson. But, take the last war; it was the most terrible destruction in the history of the world. That lesson was scourged deep into the flesh of the world, and yet no sooner are we out of it than the nations spend their substance in devising and amassing fresh engines for war; fresh subjects spring up everywhere to justify war. You might imagine that the one purpose and glory of national organization was human slaughter."

Great Britain Objects to French Priority

Agreement Regarding Reparations Injurious to British Interests

Washington.—Objections have been made by the British Government to the Loucheur-Rathenau agreement under which Germany would pay a considerable part of reparations in kind, that is in building materials and machinery, for the reconstruction of the northern departments of France.

The protest, which has been forwarded to Premier Briand by cable from Paris represents that the agreement gives France a priority in payment over other allies and is thus injurious to British interests.

Comment among members of the French delegation to the armament conference is that it was really upon the suggestion of British statesmen that the French Government authorized M. Loucheur to negotiate with M. Rathenau.

The London point of view was that Germany could never pay more than a percentage of reparations in cash and that France ought to fake products in part payment.

Shorn of Splendor

Lord Mayor's Show in London Is Curtailed With a View to Economy

London.—The historic procession of the Lord Mayor of London was shorn of much of its customary splendor with a view to economy in the face of prevailing distress. The usual banquets in connection with the election of new mayors throughout the country were abandoned in many places for the same reason.

U.S. Loan Declined

Victoria Can Raise Funds in London When Required

London.—A Melbourne dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company reports W. M. MacPherson, treasurer of Victoria, as announcing that he had declined "a tempting offer of a United States loan to Victoria." The declaration, he said, was because of the fact that he had completed negotiations in London for a loan to be available when the government here desired to raise funds through this means.
